

I Read-Aloud Every Day Trivia Game Card

Read Across America Week, March 1-7, a task for selected I Read-Aloud videos are asked over the morning announcements. Homeroom classes watch the read-aloud videos, discuss the stories, and complete the task on the game card. Teachers will turn in game card to Mrs. Hooks on Thursday, March 7th. Awards will be given to homeroom classes that submit game cards completed with correct answers written in complete sentences. I Read-Aloud Every Day books are hosted on the GHE website. Check your email for the I Read-Aloud Every Day Game Card.

I Read-Aloud Everyday Game Card
Friday, 3/1/24  i	Circle the title. There's a Ghost in this House, Wolfboy, Nigel and the Moon  Ms. Dengate asks, Where and at what time does the story take place?
Monday, 3/4/24  R	Circle the read aloud title that you watched. --Mina-- Knight Owl-- Kafka and the Doll--  Mrs. Riffe asks, Identify the emotions felt by the story character(s). How can you relate to those emotions?
Tuesday 3/5/24  E	Circle the read aloud title that you watched. -- Awake --Gib.ber.ish --Hope at Sea--  Mrs. Robinson asks, Adventures happen everyday. Write a sentence about the adventure that happened in the book.
Wednesday 3/6/24  A	Circle the read aloud title that you watched. --Gravity-- Courage Hats-- Holding On --  What is the reading genre of this book? Explain how you know.
Friday 3/7/24  D	Circle the title. --Invasion of the Unicorns-- Something's Wrong-- Yellow Dog Blues--  Mrs. Jones asks, How did the characters demonstrated how to be a good friend?