City of Augusta celebrates three state championship basketball teams

(AUGUSTA, GEORGIA) – Officials from the City of Augusta, Richmond County Board of Education and Georgia General Assembly will host a parade on Sunday, May 16 at 3 p.m. to celebrate the championships of the Cross Creek Girls and Boys and Josey Girls basketball teams. Mr. George Bailey, retiring Athletic Director for Richmond County School System, will serve as grand marshal.

The parade route begins at the Augusta – Richmond County Municipal Building, travels down Telfair Street to turn left onto James Brown Boulevard (9th Street) and ends at John H. Ruffin Courthouse. A short program will take place at the courthouse following the parade.

The community is invited to line the parade route and cheer on the championship teams.
