Richmond County School System to Host Transition and Resource Fair for Exceptional Students

(AUGUSTA, GEORGIA) – The Richmond County School System (RCSS) will host a Transition and Resource Fair for families of students who participate in special education programming in our school system. The fair will take place at the Richmond County Technical Career Magnet School (RCTCM) cafeteria on Thursday, March 27, from 5:30 – 7:30 p.m. The event will connect RCSS families with school system resources and community agencies that specialize in supporting students with disabilities.

Food and childcare are available for registered attendees. Families planning to attend and receive refreshments and childcare must RSVP by Tuesday, March 25, at rcboe.info/spedevent.

For more information, please contact the RCSS Special Education Department at (706) 826-1132.
