Richmond County School System to Host Career Fair

(AUGUSTA, GEORGIA) – Richmond County School System will host a career fair on Saturday, October 16, 2021, from 9 a.m. – noon at the Board of Education Office, 864 Broad Street. During the career fair, human resources staff will conduct on-site interviews and hiring for select positions.

“Richmond County School System is an employer of choice in our community. The school system offers excellent benefits and a collaborative working environment that makes joining our team an attractive option for recent grads and experienced professionals who are relocating to the area or looking for an exciting new opportunity,” said Dr. Cecil Clark, Richmond County School System Chief Human Resources Officer. “We encourage energetic, highly motivated people who want to impact the future, educate and support our students to apply.”
